HARVEST

STEPEVI Harvest is an exceptional collection, based on the idea of creating exquisite rugs by taking the vintage Anatolian rugs through a very unique creation process.

The journey starts with collecting vintage Anatolian rugs of organic wool composition from their designated regions. Thousands of used carpets are then exposed to Mediterranean sun and humidity, kept on the natural fields for weeks to reach a faded and battered look. These naturally worn out vintage rugs are then re-dyed in contemporary colors, cut to pieces and finally hand stitched with an artistic insight.

Each Harvest is a unique piece which tastefully injects a revamped vintage look into modern, stylish interiors.
